

iEARN: International Education and Resource Network Connecting Youth Making a Difference

Scholarship Application

iEARN-USA has received financial support from the Doris Duke Foundation for Islamic Art (DDFIA) to encourage educators in the US to increase interaction with peers in certain countries with Muslim populations. If you are interested in applying for any of these scholarships, please complete the form below.

Name: _____
School/Organization: _____
Address: _____
City: _____ State: _____ Zip Code: _____
School Phone Number: () _____
Home Phone Number: () _____
E-mail Address: _____

I would like to apply for one of 10 individual educator memberships ($100 value), which includes year-long access to iEARN for one teacher and an unlimited number of students and projects. Open Deadline.

I would like to apply for one of 5 online course scholarships in Fall 2009 (inclusive of a year-long membership, $360 value).

For more information about iEARN's online professional development program, including available professional development credits, please visit: http://us.earn.org/professional_development/online_courses/index.php

On a separate piece of paper (up to 150 words), please explain why you are applying for scholarship assistance and what this scholarship will mean for teaching and learning in your school/organization.

As part of the DDFIA grant guidelines, you will engage in collaborative projects with educators and students in the following countries: Morocco, Tunisia, West Bank/Gaza, Kuwait, Jordan, Lebanon, Syria, Iraq, Pakistan, Israel, Bahrain, Qatar, Oman and Yemen. Through your involvement, you will have access to iEARN's entire global network of educators and online projects for additional interaction and project work.

You will also be required to submit a brief report highlighting your collaborative project work at the end of your annual membership.

Return to: Miranda Galbraith
iEARN-USA
475 Riverside Drive, Suite 450,
New York, NY 10115
Fax: 212/870-2672, Email: mgalbraith@us.earn.org

For more information about iEARN-USA, visit <http://us.earn.org/>