

Laws of Life

A Teachers Guide for this project can be downloaded from

<http://www.earn.org/projects/laws.html>

It is available in English, Chinese, French, Russian and Spanish.

Fill out the following questionnaire which can be a tool to help students determine what they may want to write about in their essays.

Student Questionnaire

1. Describe an incident or event from which you learned a lesson “the hard way”.

2. What could you change about yourself to become a better person?

3. What three qualities do you value in a friend; a teacher; a parent?

4. Who is someone that you admire? List three qualities that you admire about that person.

5. Describe a situation in which you went out of your way to help someone else.

6. Has life been good to you? Explain.

7. Describe a situation in your life in which someone went out of his or her way to help you.

8. Name three things for which you are thankful.

9. Who has been most important in your life in helping you establish your values? Explain.

10. Do you have a responsibility to help those who are less fortunate? Explain.

11. When you become a parent, what are the three most important values that you hope your children will have?

12. Should community service be compulsory for all students as part of the K-12 school curriculum?

Now go to the Laws of Life forum <http://foro.learn.org/learnforums/values>
Read some student entries and respond to someone who has not had a response